West Main Street Addition

NEWARK'S ATTRACTIVE NEW HOME SECTION

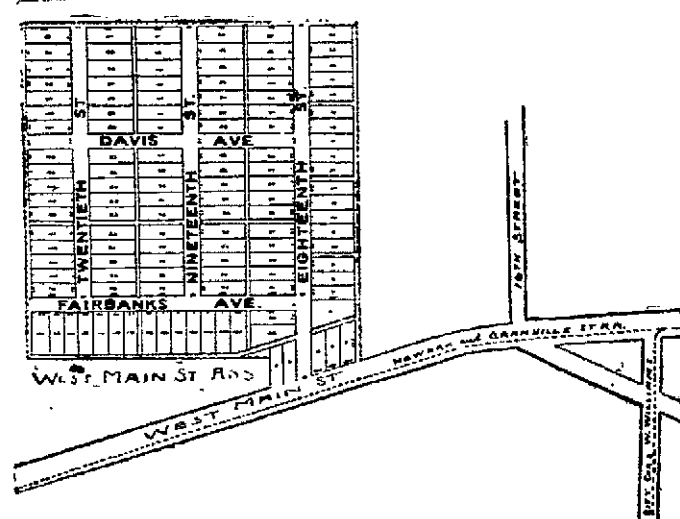

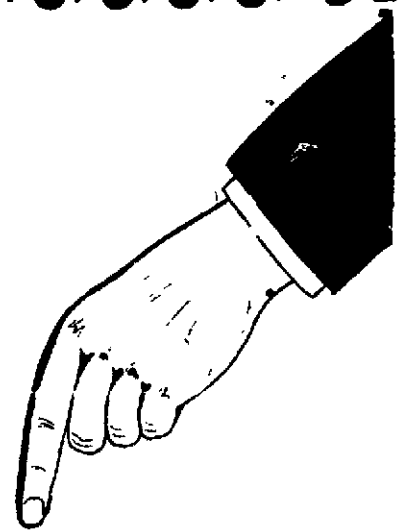

AUCTION SALE

OF

100 FINE SITES

Wednesday, Sept. 28

Beginning at 12:30 o'clock p. m.

About W. Main St. Addition.

A large force of men are now at work transforming the old Hunter farm on West Main street, into a charming home place. It will be known as West Main Street Addition.

This addition, as the name suggests, is situated on West Main street, fronting the Granville car line and within three blocks of the city car line. This line will, in a short time, be extended to Sixteenth street, which is distant one block from these sites.

It is immediately beyond Fairview.

It is in a section abounding in attractive homes.

It is just a short distance from the public school building.

It is just beyond the corporate limits, which means no city taxes to pay. It is within a few minutes' walk of the Jewett Car Works, the Newark Gear Wood Plant, the stove works of the Wehrle Company, the Fee Hardwood Mills, and within a few minutes' ride of the heart of the city.

It is partly covered with large beautiful trees, rendering the lots under their shading branches especially desirable.

It is an ideal place for a home.

The city is already built solidly up to it, and at the rate that Newark is now growing must shortly spread over these sites.

Why it Will Pay You to Buy.

Today Newark is growing more rapidly than any city in Ohio, and there is something substantial, something tangible, back of her development to justify the general belief that her growth will be as rapid and her prosperity as abundant during the coming decade as it has been during the past decade.

The progressive industries and business houses of Newark are rapidly drawing new people hither. These people must have homes. This demand necessitates that the city reach out farther and farther each year, and this expansion into the outlying sections is sending the value of lots climbing rapidly upward, making them a safe and profit-paying investment. Expanding Newark is already built solidly up to the W. Main Street Addition and it will only be a short time, now that it is being opened up, before it will be absorbed. The man who buys a lot here now is certain to see it jump rapidly in value.

West Main Street Addition, Wednesday, September 28, is your opportunity. If you are a home-seeker, buy. If you are a builder, buy. If you are an investor, buy. The terms are easy, and the price your own.

A Valuable Lot to be Given Away

All persons over 15 years of age on the ground on the sale day will be given a ticket for a public drawing of a valuable Building Lot. Be sure to be present—you may get the Lot.

Thornville, O., Sept. 24—A fine horse belonging to Noble Dixon of this place, developed hydrophobia on Thursday, and created the utmost excitement in the vicinity. The animal frothed at the mouth, and squealed, snapped and kicked at everything that came in his road. The animal made a vicious attack on a hog and succeeded in biting it most severely. Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

HAPPY REUNION

AFTER AN ABSENCE OF FORTY-FIVE YEARS.

Mrs. Andrew Hought of This City One of Party at Columbus—Aged Man Returns.

Mrs. Andrew Hought of this city is in Columbus attending a remarkable family reunion.

After an absence of 45 years from Columbus, Arthur Poole, now aged about 70 years, returned to the Capital city Thursday to meet eight brothers and sisters.

In honor of the event a family reunion is now being held at the home of a sister, Mrs. Harriet Mull, 780 West Broad street, Columbus, at which the nine members of the family, with about half a hundred relatives, are gathered, and the festivities of the occasion will be continued throughout the week and over Sunday.

Just about 45 years ago Arthur Poole, one of a large family of children, then about 33 years of age, left Columbus for the west. He settled in Oregon, at a place called Eagle's Point, where he has resided ever since.

While having been in communication with members of his family, he has seen but one brother, Emanuel, who went to Oregon five years ago.

The assemblage at the home of Mrs. Mull, the sister, on West Broad street, is a most pleasant one. Handshakings and greetings are to continue until the visiting relatives leave the city. Mr. Poole returned to find all his brothers and sisters enjoying good health and in prosperous condition. The male members of the family are Arthur and Emanuel Poole, of Eagle's Point, Oregon, and Ballard Poole of Hyatt, Delaware county, Ohio.

The women members are Mrs. Mull, the hostess; Mrs. Thomas Doyle of 815 West Broad street; Mrs. Andrew Hought of Newark; Mrs. William Shilling and Mrs. Ebe Searies of Cleveland, and Mrs. Charles Hartman, of Bluffton, Ohio.

BLACK HAND

Subject of an Article by Mr. McKinley and a Sketch by Henry C. Cochran.

The current number of the Ohio Archaeological and Historical quarterly contains an interesting article on Black Hand, written by Mr. John D. H. McKinley of Cadiz, who is very well known in Newark. Mr. McKinley includes a sketch written some years ago by Mr. H. C. Cochran, who lives about six miles west of Newark. Mr. Cochran was a former resident of Newark and was known as one of the brightest newspaper men in the city. The article used by Mr. McKinley was written some years ago by Mr. Cochran for the Ohio State Journal, in which paper it was featured.

DENISON

HAS VERY STRONG FOOTBALL TEAM THIS YEAR.

Coach Stanton is Hopeful of Good Results—Opening Game at Granville Saturday.

Coach Frank Stanton of the Denison football team was in Newark during the past week and was in conversation with the Advocate regarding the outlook for a winning team for Denison this year. Mr. Stanton is always conservative and rarely makes any claims as to what he will do. But the Bucknell star has built up athletics at Denison in the past couple of years until the baseball team was undoubtedly champion of Ohio, regard less of any claims made by the teams belonging to the so-called "Big Six." Denison's football team last year was feared by all and was known as the fastest team in Ohio, lacking only weight. This year Denison will have more weight than for several years, and Coach Stanton, while he will make no predictions, smiled confidently when asked as to his opinion of the chances of this year's team.

The sporting editor of the Advocate is under obligations to Manager Ralph Miller of the Denison team for a season ticket to the games to be played at Granville this fall. Mr. Miller is a son of E. S. Miller of Newark.

The opening game is played today. Denison vs. Columbus Barracks, at Granville.

A HAPPY MOTHER

WEATHERFORD, TEXAS,
May 14, 1902.

Before my baby was born I was in great misery. I was just able to get about but as soon as I began to take Wine of Cardui, which had been recommended to me, I felt much better. In fact I feel that if it had not been for this medicine I would not have been strong enough to live through childbirth. But that was made comparatively easy by taking your medicine for four months before baby came. Wine of Cardui restored my health as I took it two months afterward. I cannot speak too highly of Wine of Cardui and I am glad to endorse it.

Wine of Cardui is a powerful tonic which acts on the generative organs of women, regulating menstruation and giving tone and strength to the organs which inflammation and weakness have affected. It cures nineteen out of every twenty cases of bearing-down pains or ovarian trouble. Wine of Cardui cures barrenness and aids the mother in conserving her strength for the ordeal of childbirth. After that event the Wine prevents dangerous flooding and helps mothers to quick recovery. Wine of Cardui is the one medicine a mother should use before and after childbirth.

SARAH JANE

WHO WAS THOUGHT TO HAVE BEEN IN NEWARK

Located by Police in Marion Ohio, Where She Was Employed as a Chambermaid.

On Monday Daniel Easterday and son, of Pharisburg, Union county, O., visited Newark for the purpose of locating the elder Easterday's daughter Sarah Jane, who had eloped with Charles Williams, alias "Reddy" Williams, late of Company L, Fifth U. S. I. The elder Easterday was confident that his daughter was in Newark. Chief Sheridan, the police and an Advocate reporter made a thorough search of the city, but were unable to find any trace of the missing girl and the father and son returned home.

On Wednesday Easterday went to Marion, O., where a search was instituted for the girl, and with the help of the police she was finally located at the Ritzler hotel on West Center street, where she was employed as a chambermaid. The girl consented to go home. Williams had told that he had married the girl, but she denied this to her father. Easterday and his daughter returned home Wednesday night, while the search for the man Williams was continued. It is claimed that he is wanted by the police on a number of charges, one of which is desertion from the regular army, and Easterday claims he is also wanted in Racine, Wisconsin, on the charge of robbing the postoffice at that place, a reward of $500 being offered for his apprehension.

Some of the Things for Which Judge Parker Stands.

Judge Parker, the Democratic candidate for President, stands among other things for the following principles, as opposed to the principles, or policies, for which Roosevelt stands: Judge Parker stands for an honest government, economically administered. He is opposed to conducting this government, in time of peace, upon a war basis. He is opposed to extravagance in government expenditures of all kinds; and is opposed to wasting the people's money, in the creation of useless offices and in unnecessary military expenditures—for all of which Roosevelt stands.

Judge Parker is opposed to supporting a huge military establishment in a time of profound peace and creating a navy that shall vie in magnitude and costliness with the armies and navies of the monarchies of Europe—for all of which Roosevelt stands.

him; he is opposed to the United States constituting itself the guardian for all the delinquent and bankrupt governments of South America and making itself the constable to enforce the collection of their debts—for all of which Roosevelt stands.

Judge Parker is opposed to those features of the tariff which foster and develop trusts and monopolies at home, and which enable the tariff barons to sell their manufactured products to the foreigner abroad on an average of 25 per cent cheaper than to the American—for all of which Roosevelt stands and glories in so standing.

Judge Parker is opposed to imperialism; is opposed to the United States governing the Philippines by force any longer than until they are capable of self-government; he is opposed to the United States flag upholding and protecting slavery and polygamy, in the Philippines—for all of which Roosevelt stands.

Judge Parker is opposed to a personal government, that overrides the constitution and the laws; he is opposed to an executive, that encroaches upon the functions of the legislative and the judicial and makes of itself an almighty "I am it"—all of which is Rooseveltism.

Judge Parker, in a word, stands for honest government and low taxation; for conservatism and peace in time of peace; for opposition to all entangling alliances, for a tariff that shall really protect Americans, instead of largely benefitting foreigners; for economy and reform; for home rule and constitutional government—for true, not bogus Americanism.

Roosevelt stands for opposition to all these—he is the embodiment of absolutism and personal government, as opposed to constitutional government, and he is bold and defiant in so standing. Which will the people choose?

Average Family Pays $94 a Year to Protected Trusts.

According to these estimates, which under rather than over estimate the amount of the tariff tax, the average family spent in 1903, including the values of goods consumed at home, about $940. Of this $940, $330 went for goods, $16.52 went as legitimate taxes to the government, and $91 went to swell the profits of the trusts and monopolies. That is, $1 out of every $10 expended by an American family goes to protect monopolies. The tariff tax therefore unnecessarily increases the cost of living 10 per cent, and amounts to $1,599,000,000 for the 17,000,000 families in this country. It is this tax which is mainly responsible for the unparalleled growth of trusts since the passage of the Dingley Act in 1897, for the dangerous concentration of wealth in the hands of a comparatively few, and for the rapid increase in the number of multimillionaires. Every man who votes to "stand pat" on Dingley "protection" votes to tax his family 10 per cent, a year on all its expenditures and to turn the proceeds over to the monopolists, who already own or control a majority of all the wealth of the country.

Secretary Shaw, with astounding frankness, acknowledges that many millions of dollars worth of American manufactures are sold in Europe cheaper than they are sold to American consumers here at home. Many Republicans as well as Democrats condemn this system of robbery, but the Roosevelt administration proposes to continue it forever.

The Small Fraction to be Won.

(New York World)
Those supporters of Judge Parker who are discouraged by the odds against them as shown by the figures of recent elections will do well to reflect upon the fact that there are a great many voters in this country, and that a very slight change in sentiment is enough to produce tremendous effects in the election returns. At least 15,000,000 votes will be cast for President this year. The States of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Delaware, West Virginia and Colorado, added to those carried by the Democrats in the last State elections, would be enough to elect Judge Parker. A change of 33,000 votes, or a little over one-fifth of one per cent, of the total vote of the Union, would carry these six States. A change of less than one-third of one per cent, of the vote of this State alone would wipe out Odell's last plurality in New York.

If Judge Parker's strength does not represent more than these minute margins of votes, the influence of a just cause and a good candidate on elections has been greatly exaggerated.

SIZE OF THE BALLOT

Which the Voter Will Have to Tackle at the Election This Fall—The People Will Realize What the Republican Machine Bosses Have Done to Perpetuate There Infamous Rule.

Columbus, O., Sept. 24.—State issues in Ohio will not be forgotten during the present campaign, notwithstanding this is a presidential year. The record of recent Republican legislation and administration, from the inception of the Cox municipal code under Governor Nash to the culmination of a carnival of extortion and corruption under Governor Herrick will be fully exposed in the brief time still remaining before election. Even if these issues were given no attention during the campaign it is not likely that the people could forget them so soon after the adjournment of the general assembly made notorious in history by the numerical designation of the 76th.

But, assuming that there will be no prevention of state issues during the entire campaign either by public orators or in the public press, the people will still be wonderfully reminded of the foresaid legislation on election day. If they do not stop to consider the evils of modern Republican legislation in Ohio until they go into the booths to vote every one of them will then have cause and opportunity to resent the injustice which the Republican bosses have succeeded in inflicting upon the voters of every community.

As an indication of what might be expected on election day as the result of the Republican conspiracy to confuse and disfranchise the voters of Ohio it is only necessary to cite what will be in evidence in two of the larger cities of the state. In Franklin county the official ballot will be eighteen inches wide and three feet long. This is not a night mare, but a fact ascertained from official sources. In Cuyahoga county the ballot will be twenty inches wide and four feet long. In every other city and county of the state the length of the ballot will come very near averaging three feet. The confusion will by no means be limited to centers of population but will extend equally to the rural districts, where, thanks to Republican legislation the voters will be compelled to indicate their choice for township trustees along with their preferences for president and vice president of the United States.

Nothing so preposterous as this ballot has ever been offered to the voters of any state. It will look more like a condensed circus poster than anything else. It is estimated that if this ballot were read carefully column by column, an intelligent man would at least require ten minutes to digest its contents. If such an examination of the ballot were universally made on election day, it is obvious that it would be impossible to pull one-tenth of the voters in the state. Deliberate voting will be an impossibility under the system which the Republican machine—not the Republican party—has forced upon the voters of our state.

The existence of this system, involving the use of such an absurd and impossible ballot, is due to the enactment of the Chapman law by the late legislature. This is the law abolishing spring elections which, for more than fifty years, have safeguarded the local interests of the people of our state. The law as it stands now throws elections of all kinds together on the same day. That candidates for national, state, congressional, county municipal and township offices will all be voted for on the same ballot, involving a hopeless mixture of personal identity and forgetfulness of the vital principles underlying various candidates. The Republicans enacted this law at the dictation of Herrick, Cox and others, primarily in order to retain control of the political machinery in the leading cities of the state; but it was necessary to make the law general, so that the smallest rural community is affected by it relatively in the same way that it affects the largest cities. In enacting this law the Republican bosses proceeded on the theory that Ohio is a safely Republican state. By throwing local, state and national elections on the same day they expected and still expect that thousands of Republican voters will vote for local Republican candidates simply by voting a straight ticket, due to the presence of the name of a candidate for president or governor at the head of it. It was also rightly anticipated that thousands of voters of all parties would vote straight tickets from sheer inability to make selections on such a cumbersome ballot, and, of course assuming that the Republicans are in a majority in this state, this would help Republican candidates more than those of the other parties.

This infamous law was also needed as a temporary expedient by certain interests which were protected at every turn during the late session by the Republican managers. Important street railway franchises were to expire in Toledo and Cleveland and the corrupt interests which the Republican bosses represented demanded control of the city councils, not to be obtained or retained except by abolishing next spring's municipal election and electing councils along with a governor and legislature a year from next November, when it was believed state issues would obscure questions of local welfare and thus enable the Republican machine to carry out its purposes in the control of local affairs in the large cities. These are the objects which the Chapman law had in view. Democrats in the legislature voted against it to a man and it was bitterly denounced by some of the ablest and more honest Republican members on the floors of both house and senate. One Republican senator declared in open debate on the bill that it was so unjustifiable that it ought to result in turning the state over to the Democrats if enacted by a Republican legislature. Neither reason nor patriotism were of any avail, however, and the bill became a law at the dictation of the few men who controlled the legislature.

We occasionally hear talk of white men disfranchising ignorant negroes in the South, although no Southern state applies to the negro voting population more radical restrictions than are applied to white men in the New England states. But this Ohio law abolishing local elections will disfranchise thousands of intelligent white men, as well as the ignorant of any color, throughout the state. The ballot which will be presented cannot be voted intelligently by the average voter.

That is the very reason that it was authorized by law. The Republican bosses never intended that it should be voted intelligently.

This is the reminder of the late legislature which the voters of all parties will receive on election day. The near future will show its reacting force on the politics of the state.

THE STODDARD LECTURES.
Letter No. 10.

Mr. Harry Scott, Home Building Association, Newark, Ohio.

"Several years ago I purchased the original edition of the STODDARD LECTURES in ten volumes. I have added three more that have since been issued. The work is the finest thing of the kind I have ever seen. The literary quality is all that could be desired, and the books, as to the printing and illustrating, are superb. It is certainly a set of books which every one who loves what is beautiful as well as instructive should purchase. HARRY SCOTT.

Note—It is often said by those who own the STODDARD LECTURES that one can get a better idea of the world and the things worth seeing in it from the STODDARD LECTURES than from years of travel abroad. We believe this to be true. Beauty, interest, usefulness, and permanent value are the several features of the STODDARD LECTURES. Nearly 150 Newark people are using them with the greatest pleasure and satisfaction. There is not a dry page in them. The broadest culture imaginable is found in their pages. A home without the STODDARD LECTURES, now-a-days, is certainly not up-to-date. While your Newark neighbors are getting them for their homes add them to yours, and you will never regret it. BABY BALL Unique but Highly Successful Social Event Last Night at Lexington, Ky.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 21.—Amid the glare of thousands of brilliantly reflected lights and with settings of almost oriental splendor, a "baby ball" and reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. James B. Haggin at their splendid Green Hill mansion last night. It was an event that will long be remembered by blue grass swiftdom for its lack of prudery and for its conception. Stately dames and dandies arrayed in the costumes of childhood simplicity mingled with the society lords and ladies. The characters were such as have been made famous by the periodical cartoonist and the business advertiser. It was unique, entertaining and ludicrous. The "Gold Dust Twins," the "Yellow Kid" and "Little Lord Fauntleroy" were parodies in real earnest. Although the ball was given in honor of Miss Isabel Cameron of New York, the conception came from Miss Clara Bell, the millionaire heiress of this city, and Mrs. Haggin. Men and women alike were arrayed in female costume, representative of the days of babyhood, with short dresses, short hose and sandals. It was an assemblage of "girl babies" guiding each other through the dizzy lines of the waltz and the fantasies of the cotillion.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.
Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days. In fact, as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Herbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality, causing itching, scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

PICNIC

GIVEN AT BUCKEYE LAKE PARK BY THE A. I. U.

Large Number of Members From Newark, Columbus and Elsewhere Present Friday.

A large crowd attended the picnic at Buckeye Lake Friday, Sept. 23, given by the American Insurance Union of Columbus and Newark chapters. Visitors from Mansfield and Zanesville chapters also helped to swell the crowd.

A baseball game between Columbus and Newark was an interesting feature of the enjoyment. The game stood 3 to 15 in favor of Columbus, but it must be understood that the umpire was from Columbus and played under the rules of 1905. The fat ladies' race was won by Mrs. Cam Smith of Newark, prize a handsome vase.

The fat men's race was won by Jacob Hankerson, also of Newark, the prize being a box of cigars. The booby prize was taken by a Columbus gentleman who was a bottle of anti-fat.

At 6:30 in the evening a prize was offered in a waltz and was won by a Columbus couple.

Immediately after the prize waltz the degree staff of Columbus Chapter which won first prize at the St. Louis Exposition, gave a demonstration of their ritualistic work. Everybody was delighted and felt well paid for their visit to the park.

The day will long be remembered by all who were so fortunate as to attend this picnic. The weather was ideal, neither too hot nor too cold.

The American Protective Union of this city was recently consolidated with the A. I. U.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 21.—Knoxville Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church has voted against the proposition to unite the Presbyterian and Cumberland Presbyterian churches. The negro question played a prominent part in the vote, the attitude of the Presbyterian church not being sufficiently clear on that subject. Chattanooga presbytery of the same church also voted negatively on the proposition. Thus far 22 presbyteries of the Cumberland church have voted on the union question, 17 voting for and 5 against.

WILD MOB

Of Women Drawn by Bargain Ad. and the Store Was Nearly Wrecked in New York.

New York, Sept. 21.—"Ten cents worth of goods for five cents," twenty cents' worth for ten cents." This advertisement was spread through Harlem by a two and ten cent store. By 10 o'clock about 1,000 women were gathered in front of the store. The only man in the gathering was the manager of the store.

The manager of the store became frightened and locked the doors. Immediately the front doors were smashed and the glass and pieces of merchandise were strewn upon the floor. For some time after the first rush women with all sorts of articles in their arms and their shopping bags crammed with merchandise were constantly going along One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, taking the plunder home. When the reserves arrived the storm had passed. They found Newman at the back of the store. His helmet was gone, his coat tails were torn completely off, and his nose was bleeding.

LODGE NEWS

Modern Woodmen of America.

Cedar Camp held a very enjoyable meeting on last Wednesday evening with nearly three hundred members present. An athletic program of music and speaking.

Enthusiasm in the meetings and the work of the officers and team is great and the fall and winter work has started with a boom.

An invitation has been received from Zanesville for the officers, team and neighbors to attend a meeting of the camp in that city on the night of October 4, and undoubtedly a good number will go down.

Cedar Camp, No. 4727, Modern Woodmen of America, is straining every nerve to reach the 1200 mark by the end of the year. As Cedar Camp already has nearly 1,000 members and has a team of workers that cannot be excelled the world over, they will doubtless reach this number and go beyond it.

By an oversight, which The Advocate regrets more than the parties concerned, the names of two of the three physicians who spoke at the Woodmen's banquet on Wednesday night were omitted in the printing of the program in The Advocate's report. Dr. Jackson, Dr. Price and Dr. Osner were three of the speakers on that evening and they all addressed respective toasts satisfactorily and eloquently.

This improvement is extending to all departments of manufactures, and in the aggregate there is less idle machinery than at any recent date. HEROIC EFFORT TO SAVE LIVES OF PASSENGERS

Made By Engineer Who Was Himself Killed.

Only One of the Fifteen in Elevator Badly Injured Was Mr. Heintzelman.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 24.—In a heroic effort to save the lives of 15 men and boys, imprisoned on an uncontrollable elevator in the Cohen building, at 128 Longworth street, today, Harry Corman, engineer of the building lost his life by being crushed under the elevator when it struck the bottom of the shaft.

The shaft on the hands of Charles Snyder, the elevator operator, who tried to stop the cab after it had started on its jumping trip, was torn and burned by the rope but he stuck to his post and escaped serious injury. The only seriously injured person on the elevator was Louis Heintzelman whose left leg was badly cut and bruised. His condition is considered serious. His brother, Charles, and Fred Smith were shaken up, but escaped with a few slight bruises. All of the other persons on the elevator, escaped injury of any kind and were at their work soon after the accident. The 15 men and boys were employed by the Sterling Glass company, which occupies the first and seventh floors of the building.

The elevator became uncontrollable on the seventh floor and starting slowly, gained velocity and shot to the cellar. It then ascended to the sixth floor and back again to the cellar. The car rose to the first floor, where it then stopped. Geman's crushed body was found under the elevator where he had been caught while trying to stop it.

DROUGHT

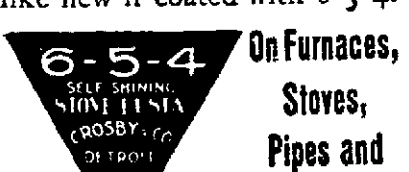

Votes Against the Proposition to Unite the Presbyterian and Cumberland Churches.

Washington, Sept. 24.—According to Consul General Mason at Berlin the United States will have to help feed central Europe during the coming autumn and winter on account of the drought in Russia, Austria, Germany, Switzerland and France. The consul general states that since Aug. 15 a careful inquiry as to the grain crops and the general agricultural situation has been made by the central station for Prussian agriculture, whose report shows there was a falling off from the yield of last year in spring wheat, winter rye, spring rye, barley and oats. Winter wheat furnished the only exception among these six leading cereals.

The steamship Barkta has reached Liverpool with a cargo of cotton from the new West African fields.

AMERICA'S JOB ON BIG CANAL WELL UNDER WAY

Chief Engineer Tells of Progress Made.

Health Conditions on Isthmus Reported to be Excellent—Total Cost Two Hundred Millions.

Flossmer, Ill., Sept. 24.—The chief engineer of the Panama canal, John F. Wallace, after a busy summer on the isthmus, is at home for a short visit.

During his three months' stay in Panama Mr. Wallace completely covered the entire canal strip, about 10 miles wide and about 47 miles long, at least 20 times, and his observations were thorough. Mr. Wallace says that at present there are about 1,500 men in the field in Panama. There are now at work six divisions of engineers' corps, each in charge of a resident engineer, who reports to Mr. Wallace as chief engineer. The engineering and clerical departments are almost entirely Americanized, and nearly every arriving steamer brings fresh additions from the United States. The majority of the common laborers as well as a few of the skilled laborers are English-speaking negroes from Jamaica.

Mr. Wallace says that the health conditions in Panama are excellent, and there is little sickness. The mean temperature this summer was about 84 degrees, and Mr. Wallace says that he does not remember that he ever passed a summer in the United States when the weather was more pleasant than it was this summer in Panama. The idea that yellow fever is still prevalent in the isthmus, Mr. Wallace says, is erroneous. It is as well as the malarial fevers common to tropical countries, is being eradicated. It has been learned that one kind of mosquito, which bites only at night, carries the malarial fever infection, and that another kind of mosquito, which bites only in the daytime, carries the yellow fever infection. It has also been learned that it is the female only which bites, the blood that the creature sucks in being not for the purpose of food, but to fecundate its eggs and so aid propagation. These eggs are deposited in stagnant pools, but by the thorough system of drainage now being put into effect these places are being gradually got rid of.

Mr. Wallace says that of the work done by the French company, perhaps 10, maybe 15 per cent can be used. It all depends on the plan finally decided on for the completion of the canal. The preliminary work of thoroughly surveying the canal route with a view of determining at what level the canal is to be cut and the exact line it is to follow will consume, Mr. Wallace says, the remainder of the year 1904 and all of 1905. By spring of 1906, he says, he expects to have the campaign entirely mapped out and the actual work of digging the canal in systematic progress. Then it will take about eight years to complete the work. The line of the canal will be for about 25 miles along the Chagres river, then along one of the branches of the Chagres passing through the cut among the hills known as the Culebra cut, about 10 miles from Panama, and thence by the Rio Grande river to Panama bay.

Mr. Wallace estimates that the completion of the canal will cost $150,000,000. This sum, added to the $100,000,000 paid to the French company for the canal property and the $10,000,000 paid to the Panama government for the grant of land, will make the total cost of the great waterway $260,000,000.

WHAT IS LIFE?
In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in constipation, headache or liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough.
